DEPUTY SHERIFFS TRAINING

Corp. Michael Miyaji
Baldwin County Sheriff's Office

Michael Miyaji retired from the United States Coast Guard in 2006 after 22 years of honorable service as a Chief Warrant Officer 3 (CWO3). In this capacity, his duties included inspection of foreign and domestic vessels for compliance with US and International regulations, conducting law enforcement boardings, and trainer. Upon retirement, Mike worked as a consultant for Maritime Security for vessels and maritime facilities.

He was hired by the Baldwin County Sheriff's Office in June 2006 and worked as a Patrol Deputy until 2008. He transferred to the Training Division as the Director of Training for the Baldwin County Sheriff's Office and as the Training Coordinator for APOSTC Law Enforcement Academy Baldwin County. He is Corporal with the Sheriff's Office and holds several certifications including Driving Instructor, Firearms Instructor, Taser Instructor, and several other areas.
